

Joseph Zimring

Associate

Areas of Focus:

- Strategic Consulting
- Security Risk Management
- M&A Banking Analysis

At the Chertoff Group, Mr. Zimring provides management consulting services and investment banking analysis to clients within the security markets. He helps to support a variety of international clients in the development and execution of their risk management strategies.

Mr. Zimring has previous experience working in Morgan Stanley's Investment Banking and Fixed Income Divisions in New York City. At Morgan Stanley, he helped analyze monetization options for a $2Bn office investment trust via disposition or IPO, prepared presentations for the first round of due diligence and bid requests on the sell-side of a five data center $600mm portfolio, and produced extensive credit analysis on high yield corporate and municipal debt.

Mr. Zimring comes to the Chertoff Group as an Associate after receiving his B.A. from Dartmouth College with a degree in History and Economics. While at Dartmouth he was a James O. Freedman Presidential Scholar, a Varsity Football Letterman and a member of Theta Delta Chi Fraternity.

Mr. Zimring is a recipient of the Missouri House of Representatives Glory of Missouri Award in the Virtue of Charity.