

Marjorie Chelius

Associate

Areas of Focus:

- Budget & Financial Analysis
- Database Construction
- Market Analysis
- Critical Infrastructure
- Strategic Advice

As an Associate at The Chertoff Group, Marjorie Chelius uses her research and analytical skills to help clients achieve their growth objectives. Ms. Chelius is involved with a wide range of projects that deliver strategic support to clients both domestically and internationally.

Ms. Chelius joined The Chertoff Group after having received her B.A. from Dartmouth College in June 2011. She received her diploma in Classical Languages and Literature with a minor in Finance. While at Dartmouth she participated in a James O. Freedman Presidential Scholarship, studied as a Dartmouth College Endowed Scholar for four years, served as treasurer of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority, worked extensively with Dartmouth Alumni Relations, completed a Dartmouth Partners in Community Service internship, and enjoyed playing on the Women's Club soccer team.